

The Regimiento Fijo de Puerto Rico and the National Park Service present

SIEGE OF SAN JUAN · 1797 SAN JUAN, PUERTO RICO APRIL 24-26, 2009

RECREATED MILITARY UNIT ACTIVITIES

To commemorate the successful defense of the walled city of San Juan of Puerto Rico in 1797 against General Ralph Abercromby's invading British army by the Regimiento Fijo de Puerto Rico and supporting Disciplined Militias of Puerto Rico led by Capitán General Don Ramón de Castro, San Cristobal Fort will be the site of a military encampment for the troops which will engage in tactical demonstrations by British and Spanish recreated units with artillery and cavalry support over the course of the weekend on the open fields of San Felipe del Morro Fort and El Escambrón Battery.
